International women's day, we celebrate !

In 1910, Clara Zetkin, a socialist activist, was the first to put forward the idea of a day dedicated to women's rights at a meeting of the Socialist International Women in Copenhagen.

Who was the first person to have the idea of a day dedicated to women?

When was the first Women's Rights Day?

International Women's Rights Day has its origins in women's protests in early 20th-century Europe and the USA, demanding better working conditions and the right to vote.

International Women's Day

In 1975, during International Women's Year, the United Nations began to celebrate International Women's Day on March 8.

When did the United Nations start celebrating International Women's Day?

United Nations

What victories do we celebrate?

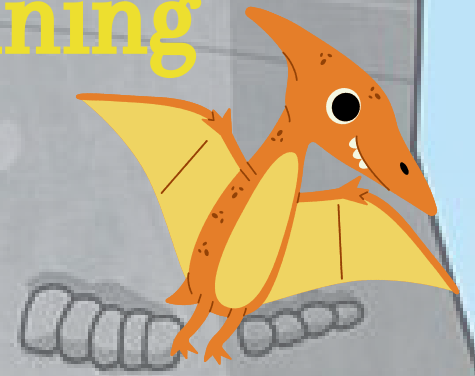

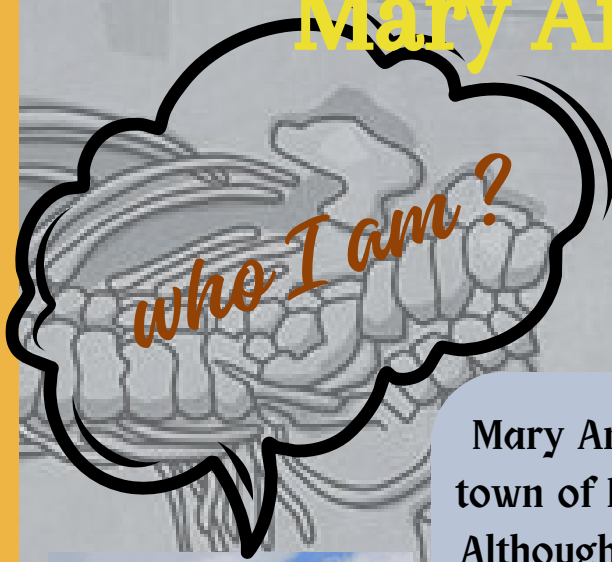

On March 8, women gather to celebrate victories :

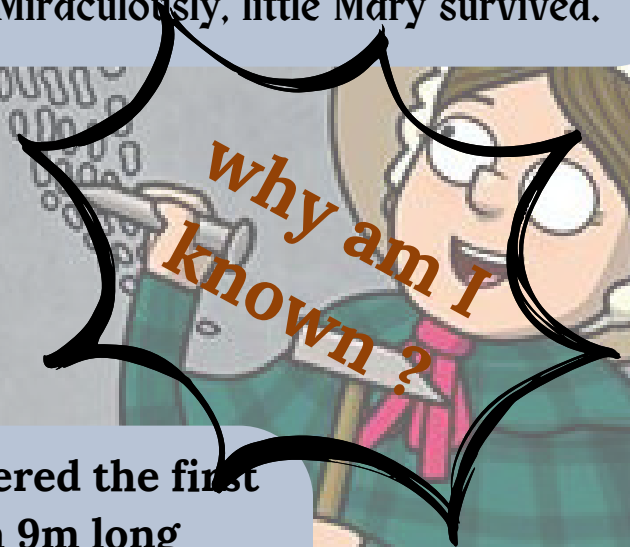

- Women's right to vote in England, 1928
- Women's right to vote in France, 1945
- Women's right to vote in Portugal and Spain, 1931
- Women's right to vote in Germany, 1918

Today, a new law has been passed to enshrine a woman's freedom to terminate her pregnancy in the 1958 Constitution.

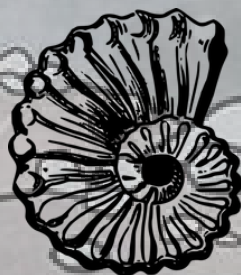

Mary Anning

Mary Anning was born in the seaside town of Lyme Regis, Dorset, UK, in 1799. Although her parents had ten children, only Mary and her brother Joseph lived to adulthood. It's said Mary had a lucky escape when she was a baby. The lady holding her was struck by lightning. Miraculously, little Mary survived.

Mary Anning discovered the first known fossil of a 9m long Ichthyosaur at the age of 12. In 2014 a new species of ichthyosaur, Nanningae, was named after her.

WOMEN CAN DO ANYTHING !

Women, life, respect
We can be beautiful and powerful
Weak it's what men want us to be to stay powerful
Strong as lions, we will be more successful

Woman, strong and confident
Institutions before wanted us to depend on men
In our days, women don't depend on men
We are confident
Independent

WE ARE BOTH SUNSHINE
AND RAIN
CAPABLE OF BOTH PEACE
AND WAR
WE ARE TIMELESS BEAUTY
WITH REFINED ELEGANCE
A GIRL WHO HAS TRIUMPHED
AND FAILED
WE HAVE DISREGARDED OTHER PEOPLES
ASSUMPTIONS
FOR WE CANNOT BE KEPT CAPTIVE
BY THE SMALL MINDS OF OTHERS
THEY FEAR THE DAY WE REALIZE WHAT SHE IS CAPABLE OF
SOME ARE SOLDIERS
BUT WE ARE AN ARMY
WE FIGHT FOR THOSE WHO CANNOT FIGHT FOR THEMSELVES
THERE IS A QUIET CONFIDENCE THAT SCREAMS
LOUDLY WITHIN OUR SOUL
WE ARE HUMBLE
OUR GIVING SPIRIT SHOULDN'T BE MISTAKEN
FOR NAIVENESS
FOR WE ARE OUR OWN KIND
CREATED BY A POWERFUL KING
FOR WE KNOW OUR PURPOSE
AND WHO WE SERVE
WE ARE NOT A FORCE TO BE PLAYED WITH
FOR WE ARE OUR OWN

We Are Women
